JOHN T. CRISP DIES OF APOPLEXY AT HIS HOME

TODAY

Noted Missourian, for Many Years the Most Conspicuous Member of the General Assembly.

CONFEDERATE OFFICER DURING THE WAR

Author of the Separate Coach Bill Which Attracted so Much Attention at the Last Legislature.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 21 .- Col. John T. Crisp died of apoplexy at his home in Benton Park, near Independence, early this Shortly after midnight, Col. Crisp complained of feeling badly and a servant was dispatched for a physician a short time later, as the attack grew more severe. The nearest physician was summoned, but when he arrived at the house about 3 o'clock, Col. Crisp was dead. Col. Crisp was one of the bestknown men in Missouri. He earned his military title fighting for the southern confederacy, having taken a conspicuous part in many battles. He was a member of the famous conference held at Neosho in 1861 by Gov. Jackson and secessionist members of the state legislature. Col. Crisp, but for his absence from the state during the war and for a few years fol-lowing, would have a record of 42 years in the legislature.

At every session of the legislature Col. Crisp was pointed out to visitors as the unique character of the Assembly. No vistor ever waited long to hear a speech from Col. Crisp. His "Mr. Speaker" was a sound heard almost as frequently as the rap of that official's gavel, and his discussions of matters, great and small, which excited his interest, were exhaustive-always as to the subject, sometimes as to the hearers. He was seldom interrupted. To rise to a point of order when Col. Crisp had the floor was an act of temerity which members attempted.

"I live closer to hell," Col. Crisp was fond of remarking, "than any other mem-ber of the Methodist Church in the United States." Of the second city in the state he also said that when Satan wishes to relieve the congestion of his overcrowded realm, he paroles a regiment of his most hardened citizens on straw bond and sends them to Kansas City.

Then a bill was introduced into the assembly for its repeal. It passed the House of Delegates, but a committee of the league opposed its passage in the Council and it was killed. While it was under discussion, Councilman Boyce suggested that a committee of the league confer with a committee representing the wagon owners in an effort to agree upon an amendment to the ordinance that would be mutually satisfactory. G. J. Tansey, president of the St. Louis Transfer Co., and C. M. Allen of the Columbia Transfer Co., prepared an amendment and submitted it to W. S. Stuyvesant, chairman of the league committee. Mr. Stuyvesant has notified the mayor that in the opinion of the committee the amendment would nullify the effect of the ordinance and that the league will not agree to it. Therefore it again asks the mayor that the present ordinance be enforced and the police instructed to arrest drivers of wagons the tires of which do not comply with the provisions. Although frosts of the 18th caused further injury to fruit in the upper Ohio valley, the reports generally, excepting those respecting peaches, are somewhat more encouraging than those of the previous week. Apples appear to have escaped injury in New England and the middle Atlantic states.

In California fruit is mostly in good condition, having sustained less injury by frost than was estimated. Considerable early fruit has been injured by frequent frosts in Oregon, but in Washington the cool weather has kept buds in check and little or no injury has resulted in that state.

MERCANTILE TRUST'S

Local Company Appointed Depository and Correspondent for Bank of France.

Another financial coup for St. Louis culminated today when it was announced that the Mercantile Trust Co. has been apmat the Mercantile Trust Co. has been ap-pointed depository and correspondent for the Bank of France, which in reality is the French government.

Negotiations toward this end have been poing on for some time, but the final de-adils have only just been completed, owing to the magnitude of the new connection of the local trust company. The Bank of France has now opened an account with the company.

the Third National Bank as agent for the Yokohama Specie Bank of Yokohama, Japan, this serves to accentuate the growing importance of St. Louis as a financial center, according to the expressions of leading local bankers.

Discussing the importance of the new relationship, an official of the Mercantile Trust Co. stated to the Post-Dispatch that the step means virtually that the institution will become the business headquarters for all visitors from France during the World's Fair. On account of the many ramifications of the Bank of France, it is probable also that a large number of new interests will be attracted to and centered in St. Louis so that the benefits of the arrangement will prove permanent.

tails have only just been completed, owing to the magnitude of the new connection of the local trust company. The Bank of France has now opened an account with the company. Festus J. Wade, president of the Mercandle, was the representative of the Mercandle Trust Co. in the negotiations, which were conducted largely by correspondence. Coming closely after the appointing of Struck Her With His' Fist When She Refused to Give Up Her Purse.

A negro robber who attacked Miss Katle Lally of 4116 Cook avenue Baturday night about 7 o'clock, broke her jaw in two places by striking her with his fist when she refused to hand over her purse to him. Miss Lally is a stenographer in the law department of the St. Louis & Southwestdepartment of the St. Louis & Southwest-ern railway in the Equitable building. Saturday evening she had been to her dressmaker's and was walking north on Compton avenue, between Lucas and Washington avenue. As she passed the alley a negro ran up to her and demanded her money. "If you scream I'll kill you," he said, but she did scream as loudly as she

The negro struck her on the jaw and knocked her clear off the sidewalk into the gutter, where she lay unconscious. Her cries had been heard, however, by Her cries had been heard, however, by a number of men in an express office close at hand, and a half-dozen persons came running to her aid.

The negro did not wait to take her pocketbook, but ran with all his might. Most of the rescuers when they saw Miss Lally prone and motionless thought a murder had been committed and they devoted their attention to finding out how badly she had been hurt instead of pursuing the negro. When they ascertained what had happened an ineffectual hunt was made for the assailant. A carriage was called and Miss Lally was sent to her home. Her most serious injury is to her jaw. She has some minor bruises and is suffering with nervous prostration. She is a sister of John Lally an attorney.

Married

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Priend overcomes all the nger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free. this liniment, will be sent free.

BP. GLENNON COMES MAY 2. New Coadjutor Will Be Guest of Arch bishop Kain.

Documents from Rome, have been received completing the appointment of Bishop Glennon as coadjutor to Archbishop Kain of the archdiocese of St. Louis. Bishop Glennon is expected to take up his duties in St. Louis Saturday, May 2 Spring confirmations begin May 1.

Archbishop Kain has invited Bishop Giennon to make his home at the archepiscopal residence, and the Invitation has been accepted temporarily. It is probable that later Bishop Giennon will reside in one of the parochial residences and will establish a downtown office.

REPRIMANDED SALOON KEEPER. Thought Plaintiff Should Have Been Defendant in Beer Canning

Episode. "So you sold these young boys beer, allowed them to drink it on your premises and because they became unruly you had them arrested. It is you who ought to be the defendant in this case, and if you were I would fine you heavily. The boys are discharged."
Such was the verdict of Judge Polard of the Dayton street police court in the case of Gua Rogge, a saloon keeper at $184 North Broadway, who had Louis Kinstler James Farrell and George Mor-

Elizabeth La Fontain Has Sister Living in St. Louis.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Elizabeth La Fontain, an artist, was found dead in bed in her room in West Fifty-second street. Her death was reported to the coroner's office, and Coroner Scholer, who investigated, said she died of heart disease.

She was 51 years old. She was a land-scape painter of some mote, and was a member of the Art Students' League. She is said to have had a sister, an author, living in St. Louis.

Negro Has Best Chance in South. NEW YORK, April II.—John Dewitt War-ner, in a lecture delivered in Brooklyn last night, declared it was his conviction, based on experience, that the South affords better opportunities to the negro of ability than the North, and that the colored man would do well to stay in the South, where he is appreciated and understood.

AGE NO BAR.

Everybody in St. Louis is Eligible

Old people stooped with suffering,
Middle age, courageously fighting,
Youth protesting impatiently;
Children, unable to explain;
Baby crying, can't tell why.
All in misery from their kidneys.
Only a little backache first.
Comes when you catch a cold.
Or when you strain the back.
Backache is the first step of kidney rouble.

Many complications follow. Urinary disorders, diabetes, Bright's

Urinary disorders, diabetes, Bright's disease.

Plenty of St. Louis proof that this is so. Mrs. Henry Koglin of 1930 Warren street, Eighteenth ward, says: "My son had rheumatism and for 11 weeks was unable to work, most of the time being confined to his bed. It attacked his knees and ankles. In addition to this he continually complained of a pain in the small of his back and sometimes all over the body. Reading on more than one occasion about Doan's Kidney Pills being a remarkable remedy to use in case of kidney troubles, induced me to go to "Wolff-Wilson's" for a box. He improved under the treatment and a continuation so greatly benefited him that he returned to work. At the present time he is in the single property of the post-Dispatch.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 21.—Senator William J. Stone delivered a furious tirade before the Missouri Democratic Press Association yesterday afternoon, in which he denounced the metropolitan press of Missouri tritticing his conduct as a lobbylist and tried to explain his connection with the boodle alum legislation of the baking powder trust.

The senator pledged himself to turn over a new leaf, closing his speech in these words:

"I hold in my hand a commission of great honor from the people of Missouri. I hope God will wither my hands and burn my heart in the flames of hell before I dishonor any post to which my people may call me." to work. At the present time he is in good health."

A WASHINGTON, D. C., LADY Makes a Remarkable

Statement.

After Years of Suffering from Acute Nervous Dyspepsia,

Paine's Celery Compound

Effects a Happy Cure.

Dyspepsia, one of humanity's most cruel enemies, is effectually cured by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. This tormenting disease is caused by acute in-flammation of the nerves centered about the stomach. In dyspepsia nervous enerorganism is deranged. The needs of dyspeptics may be summed up as follows:

MRS. ADA COCHRANE.

The great nervous system requires strengthening; the blood now charged with impurities must be cleaned, so that it will flow healthily and in abundance; the stomach, weak, and unreliable, must be toned up. Paine's Celery Compound in the springtime will accomplish all that is needed for the dyspeptic sufferer, and banish troubles that make daily life unbearable. Mfs. Ada Cochrane, Washington, D. C., says:—

"I have for years been a sufferer from scute attack of nervous dyspepsia, and during the past winter I heard so much about your Paine's Celery Compound I decided to try what it would do for me. I used less than two bottles and experienced relief almost from the first dose I took. I did not find it necessary to finish the second bottle. I therefore do not hesitate to add my hearty indorsement to the many thousands of testimonials you already have."

He did not explain why he posed as a representative of this mythical society which he alleged was composed of the best men and eged was composed of the best men and women in different parts of Missouri, while acting as the attorney of the baking powder trust.

FOUND HER BODY IN THE WELL Coroner's Jury Decides Young Wom-an's Death Was Accidental.

Body Resulted in Verdict of Homicide.

The coroner's jury in the inquest over Calls Upon the Deity to Smite the remains of the late Dennis Cummings returned a verdict of homicide

Monday afternoon, as told in late editions of the Post-Dispatch, and Mrs.
Minnie Cummings, wife of the dead man, who fired the fatal shot, was taken back to the Four Courts, a prisoner.

She will be held until Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Dalton is furnished a transcript of the evidence from Deputy Coroner O'Keefa.

During the inquest Mrs. Cummings maintained a sullen demeanor, now and then variated by periods of weeping.
Detective Harrington took the woman back to her cell in the Four Courts at the conclusion of the inquest. To him she admitted, he says, that she searched the body of her hueband after the shooting and before she notified Mrs. Eleanor Duff, landlady of the boarding house at 2814 Locust street, of the tragedy. Mrs. Cummings confessed that she found a note she had written to Cummings that same day, tore it in pieces and threw the fragments in a grate, where they were subsequently found.

Rev. Charles E. Campbell, Elequent Pastor, Is in Jail.

CARBONDALE, Ill., April II.—Rev. Charles E. Campbell, pastor of the Christian Church at Anna, Ill. has been arrested at the request of the police of Marshall, Ill., on a charge of forgery. The preacher was taken to the Clark County is it.

Jail.

Campbell came to southern Illinois from California and became a railroad fireman. He is said to have a wife and 4-year-old daughter in the West. He became interested in religious work, joined the Methodist Church and became a preacher.

Differences arose which caused him to leave that church and join the Disciples. Last fall he was connected with the Illinois Anti-Saloon League and with that organization he had trouble. He is considered a forceful preacher and built up the church at Anna during the three months' pastorate.

Held for Second Robbery. Joseph O'Brien denies that he robbed the Railway Exchange building at Fourth and Chestnut street a second time, but he is locked up on that charge. O'Brien has just been released from a year's term at the workhouse for robbing that building and when a burglar raided the office of the Daily Record and Jacquisnet's talior shop in the building, O'Brien was arrested again.

Boston at Philadelphia.

Unless it be in the cut of the uniforms there will be no new spring styles of frills exhibited in the American League opening at Sportsman's Park Wednesday.

There will be a little practice and then the Browns will take the field while Chicago goes to bat. Umpire Sheridan will bellow out the order to play, Frank Donahue or Ed Siever will wind up, and when they shoot the ball acro's the season of 1903 will be a thing of he present.

Both local ciubs wisely decided to dispense with parades, band concerts and the like. The spring series awakened every fan. It exhibited both teams and the novelty of seeing the players in action soon were.

'Tis a pity that Cleveland couldn't have been sent here again this year. have been sent here again this year. Then there would have been a fight on hand for McAleer. Now everyone is counting on St. Louis winning three out of the four from Chicago, for Comiskey's team is weefully weak in pitchers and infielders.

The Brewns returned from Kansas City Monday morning and spent an afternoon at practice. The field at Sportsman's Park was very soft. Around first hase at twas impossible to make a catch or a stop on account of the mushy mud. Water at stood in parts of the outfield and unless the sun works steadily Tuesday.

Fast Outfielding
by J. Emmett Heidrick.

Monday's practice revealed no bad arms ong the pitchers. Reidy, Powell, Sudhoff and Siever followed one another to the box and pitched to the batters until they perspired freely and then trotted to the clubhouse. In the outfield he accomplished the feat of catching three long fly balls and throwing them back to the infield, Wallace knocking them out in rapid succession as fast as he could swing his bat.

To catch every ball Heidrick had to judge two of them in the air at one time and while he caught one he would be running toward the other. It was quite an exhibition of outfielding.

Very little infield practice was indulged in. The hitters had a heavy day. Burkett souldn't get enough by taking his turn so he "copped" a ball, went over to left field and presuaded a boy to pitch to him all afternoon, He kept his little game going all afternoon, wearing out several sets of fielders. Tuesday the Browns practice morning and afternoon. Most of them are feeling like playing championship ball.

McAleer isn't saying who will pitch the opener because he don't know himself. Chances are that it will be Frank Donohue to the front with Siever in reserve to repel invaders in case of a desperate attack on Donahue's slants. The White Sox are due in St. Louis Tuesday night. They are not causing any worry in the Brown camp.

A good day means a good crewd. The opening will be quite a society affair, nearly all the boxes having been sold.

PRIZE FIGHTS FOR MEXICO To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Inless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, a number of the street of th

Left for Chicago This Morn ing, Having Signed to Pitch for That Club.

Pitcher Bob Wicker is no longer a mem-ber of the St. Louis National League team. He departed this morning for Chicago and will join the National League club of that

The deal for Wicker's transfer was com pleted after the Cardinals left for Pitts-burg Sunday night. Selee was short of pitchers. Corridon is ill in St. Louis and some of his other twirlers are not in good

When the Chicago club played here last week, Selee put in his bid for a twirler. He has seen Wicker work against the Boston and Chicago clubs, and last Friday when Wicker replaced Yerkes and finished the game against Chicago, he looked very good to Selee. Wicker, Yerkes, McFarlan and Milton were left behind when the Cardinals de-parted for Pittsburg. Monday afternoon parted for Pittsburg. Monday afternoon Wicker received a telegram from Selee, dated from Champaign, Ill. The message directed Wicker to report to the club at Chicago at once. Wicker made his arrangements to leave town hurriedly, and will arrive at Chicago Tuesday night. He will don a Cub uniform Wednesday and probably will pitch one of the games against Cincinnati.

It is probable that Donovan telegraphed his consent to the transfer after he left St. Louis. A player's consent is also necessary, but Wicker is willing to make the change. He believes he can do better work there than in St. Louis.

Yerkes Is Not Yet Disposed of.

The deal in which Stanley Yerkes is concerned still hangs fire. Under the present baseball laws a player cannot be transferred without his consent. On the other hand he cannot leave one club for another in any league with the club's consent, so the player is practically at the disposal of the league. However, he can make trouble by holding off.

Yerkes strolled over to Sportsman's Park Monday afterneon and watched the Browns practice. He said that he was still in the dark regarding any transfer. He probably will be sent to Philadelphia.

Wicker joined the Cardinal's in July, 1901. He was brought from the Dayton club of the Western Association. At Dayton he was a star and with Earl Moore did practically all the good pitching for that club.

The St. Louis club wanted either Moore or Wicker, but Jimmy McAleer, then manager of the American League Club at Cleveland, got to Moore after Louis Hellbroner had tried to sign him, and carried the big pitcher off to Cleveland.

With Cardinals

Two Seasons.

Wicker and Ed Heydon, an Indianapolis catcher, came to the Cardinals as a battery, but neither made good that season. Heydon was too light and was returned to Indianapolis and is there yet. The St. Louis clib found that Manager Armour of Dayton has disposed of a gold brick when he seut Wicker to St. Louis. The pitcher's arm was dead for the rost of the season. He didn't pitch a game, and except for playing the outfield in one game he was useless to the club, which carried him along all summer.

Last season Wicker pitched good ball for a while. He had lets of speed, but he soon let down and afterward suffered a mild attack of malaria, which kept him from showing anything like winning form all season.

This year he seems in better shape than ever, but while speedy, he does not possess the best of control. He is undoubtedly a good wisher, but Dongwan thinks he had will be good today. Jerry Hunt does not good the season to the properties of the entries in this race I am merits of the entries in this race I am forced to the conclusion that Action is a better horse than Blanco.

a Great One.

Action's record on the Pacific coast is an a great one, and the way he won his races stamps him as more than an ordinary celt. He is a candidate for the form and his race today will be a sort of try-out for that event.

Mauser's forte is mud, and heavy mud at that, and I do not think he will be an important factor in this race, as the track will be good today. Jerry Hunt does not

Blanco won a couple of races at Little Rock with light weight up. The most noticeable feature of his performances was his gameness, and in a close contest tha is an important element.

a Speedy Trick,

Ilarry Griffith was such a speedy trick last year that he is entitled to be selected for show money.

St. Agnes II is considered the fastest 2-year-old in training at Kinloch, and as Amberita ran her to a neck Thursday the Schreiber filly looks to have the second race "cinched" today.

Getchel also ran well last week and should be the contender at the finish. Dr. Bernays' Don O'High should have class crough to run third, even if he has not done well at this meeting so far.

What is the use in trying to pick the winning of the third race, which is a contest between 15 herses that are not worth sit altogether?

Flora Levy is unfortunate in the break-aways, but if she can get off fairly well today she has as good a chance to win as any other horse in the race. It is impossible to get a goed boy to ride at Flora's weight. One is taking a big risk in betting on her considering her misfortunes at the post, but she is certainly the speedlest of the lot.

Helen Hay was a fair 2-year-old last year and should be good enough now to defeat snything in this race fer place. She will he at a long price and will be worth ribbling at. Sarilla, with a vigorous rider up will probably finish as good as third.

Centie looks like a real good thing in the fifth race. She ran Jerry Flumt to a head the second day of the meeting at six and a half turlongs, and if Jerry were engade here he would be made a strong favorite. Outside of Mellie T. and Goudy there is nothing in the race to give her an argimen!

Fielen Faxton is the best jumper in the hurdle race, and if she is ready it is little.

For some reason other than the question of weight Hugh McPadden has backed out of his match with Brookly Tommy Suilivan. The boys were to hav gone 29 rounds at the West End Clu Thuradey night, but McPadden mushave been afraid of his chances, as a quibbled over the weights and withdres from the match.

Promoter Haughton was disappointed but at once entered into negotiation with Clarence Forbes, and the latte will fight Suilivan instead of McPadde The boys will go 20 rounds at 122 pounds and McPadden manager now claims that he could make down to that weight.

Had McChesney Hurt in 1902, Now Witful Is Out of American Derby Through Hurt.

BY R. D. WALSH.

The serious injury sustained by Sam Hilreth's Witful at Memphis Monday, precludes the possibility of her being a conwill be run Thursday next at Neshville,

She was so badly hurt that she will have to be thrown out of training altogether, and, in all probability, wil not be able to take part in the American Derby in which race she has been second choice. Racegoers, with any sentiment in their make-up will deeply regret this unlucky accident. Witful has not only proved herself a game and consistent raceh, but she became very popular by reason of the splendid victories which she acheved at New Orleans and Memphis. Like Y Tambein and Imp, she had become a popular idol. Her absence from the Cumberland Derby especially will be a good thing for the owners of Fore and Aft, as there does not seem to be much of a chance to defeat William Gerst's good cold in the absence of Witful.

Last year a similar misfortune befell Sam Hildreth. He then owner McChesney and he was favorite for the American Derby. A few weeks before the great race the son of McDuff met with a bad accident which necessitated his withdrawal from the classic. She was so badly hurt that she will have classic.

Now comes the Witful disaster, just two months before the Chicago race, and it seems as if Fate were fighting against Hildreth. Everyone sympathizes with him in this last and most deplorable accident.

SMITH NINE IS MINUS A CAPTAIN

Frank Liebke Quits the Academy After Hot Tilt With Its Principal.

The Smith Academy baseball team is without a captain and shortstop, and the opening of the Interscholastic League sea-on is only a week away. Capt. Frank Liebke's resignation was sent in Tuesday morning after a tilt be-tween Liebke and Principal Jackson of Smith Academy. Who his strocessor will be is problematical. For the past week or so Capt. Liebke has been ill, though he still kept up his studies. Under orders from his physician he re-frained from practice with the baseball team.

Under orders from his physician he refrained from practice with the baseball team.

Monday afternoon Principal Jackson criticised Liebke's action in staying away from practice. An argument followed, in which Capt. Liebke stated that he was only following his physician's instructions. He questioned the authority of the principal in intimating that he should be at practice and several hot words passed.

Liebke sent in his resignation in writing Monday and has quit the school.

His loss is a blow which will kill Smith Academy's aspirations for the Interscholastic League pennant this season. Liebke was the life of the team as well as the instructor and coach. He played the outfield in 1901, and last summer played shortstop and acted as captain. He was re-elected to the captaincy and has worked steadily with the team until he became ill.

Liebke is regarded as one of the best amateur infielders and hitters in the city, and his "inside" knowledge made him valuable to the team. Smith has no baseball coach, and most of the work fell on Liebke. He has worked hard to make a winner of the team, and last year put up a game fight for the pennant. Pitcher Holthaus probably will succeed him as captain. Tom Carfer will try for short. Liebke will continue playing amateur ball and will go into business with his father.

Last spring Liebke quit school owing to some disagreement with Principal Jackson, but returned after an absence of a few days.

The game was played in 20-minute halves. The "Feathers" scored in the first half with a free throw by Capt. Spencer. The "Firsts" scored in the second with a field throw by Miss Messing. Close guarding prevented further, scoring.

The spectators were about evenly divided. Each bit of play was given applause. Young women stood upon chairs and gave cais that echoed through the building to encourage their favorite team.

The baby mascot of the "Firsts," Sam Earl Randall, aged 3 months, was the only quiet person in the hall. He neither cried nor laughed, but watched the game baby-fashion.

nor laughed, but watched the game baby-fashion.

The game was a hard work contest from the time the umpire flipped the nickel for choice of basket until the timekeeper's whistle blew at the end of the last half. Never was either side confident.

The entire first half and twelve minutes of the second had been played before Miss Messing made her field throw while unguarded.

The day's victory made the twelfth successive one for the "Firsts," who won the High School championship both last and this season. They defeated the "Feathers" in March and have played Springfield, Ill., and Carbondale since that time, Miss Lillian Randall has been their captain since their organization.

The "Feathers" exhibited good team work.

The Feathers of the "Pioneers," an alumit team, who favor the "Feathers," were ispleased with some of the decisions of impire Forbes and offered to buy him a cook of rules at the close of the game. The score of the game was as follows:

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY TRUST 0

Charles Ehrlicher of 2812 North Fifteenth street is trying to prevent his son, August O. Ehrlicher, from marrying. The eider Ehrlicher is a veteran of the civil war, and is enlisting the aid of his comrades to find out whether the young man, who is only 18, has tried to get a marriage license. Inquiries have been made at Clayton and many other towns in the vicinity of the city. The young woman Ehrlicher, Jr., expects to marry is said to be Miss Gertrude Koch. One of the reasons, the parent says, he objects to the wedding a because he is expected to move out of his present residence to make room for the bride.

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate.

The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely

CUTICURA OINTMENT

Purest of Emollients and Greatest of Skin Cures.

The Most Wonderful Curative of All Time

r Torturing, Disfiguring Skin Humours

J Purest and Sweetest of Toilet Emollients.

Cuticurs Ointment is beyond question the most successful curative for torturing, disfiguring humours of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases, by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humours, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when all other remedies fail. It is especially so in the treatment of infants and chilso in the treatment of infants and children, cleansing, soothing and healing the most distressity of infantile humours, and preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp and hair.

Cuticura Ointment possesses, at the same time, the charm of satisfying the simple wants of the tolict, in caring for the skin, scalp, hair, hands and feet, from infancy to age, far more effectually, agreeably and economically than the most expensive of tolict emollients. Its "Instant relief for skin-tortured bables," or "Sanative antisoptic cleansbables," or "Sanative antiseptic cleans-ing," or "One night treatment of the hands or feet," or "Single treatment of the hair," or "Use after athletics," cycling, golf, tennis, riding, sparring, or any sport, each in connection with the use of Cutterra Soap, is sufficient evidence of this.

Premier Performance of Forepaugh-Sells Show Was a Success.

THERE ARE VERY MANY NEW SPECIAL FEATURES

The Thrilling Ride of Diavolo Is the Climax to a Tent Eentertainment of Unusual Excellence.

The Adam Forepaugh-Bells Brothers circus opened its season Monday night at La-clede and Vandeventer avenues to an apauding audience that completely filled the enormous tent. From the opening parade to the descent of Diavolo, who looped the loop on a bicycle, the hundred or more acts were of exceptional excellence.

For a premier the performance was singularly smooth. Not a delay or an accipaugh-Sells show has an almost confusing number of things entirely new.

The performances of the animal actors in the show are more than usually interesting. Eight elephants dance an old-fashioned quadrille; Pontol's Russian bear wrestles and fights with his master, and two rings are filled at the same time with baby elephants and pontes.

One of the supreme features of ohe show is the riding of the Lowande family, Oscar Lowande doing a back somersault from the back of one horse to that of another while the animals are in motion. Miss Emma Stickney does a graceful bareback act, and there are several other women riders of merit.

One of the greatest hits of the show was the remarkable work of the Aurora Zouave company, which drilled with wonderful rapidity and precision. The Eddy family of acrobats, the La Carmens' great performance on one wire, the Ryan and Zore k troupe in their trapeze act and the several bicycle turns all received merited applause.

several bloyle in their trapeze act and the several bloycle turns all received merited applause.

There were the usual exciting hippodrome features, and the show closed with a feature that kept everyone in their seats. This was Diavolo's act of looping the loop. Starting from near the roof of the canvas Diavolo rides dwn a long incline on a bicycle, his red body sharply outlined against the white tent. Suddenly he strikes the loop and goes around. It is a thrilling performance, and many in the audience involuntarily cried out as the bicycle got to the top of the loop and seemed to hang for a fraction of a second as if it would drop. But the momentum carried the daring bicyclist around and he rolled away to safety. The act is one of extraordinary danger, and its performance requires great nerve as well as judgment.

From Lincoln to Roosevelt:

In the collection of tales out of school just published by Capt. Pendel, chief door-keeper and usher, and oldest employe of the White House, he cites a singular coincidence in which all the ten Presidents whose habits he knew so well were of one mind. It was a little thing—but it is just such trifles that impress upon us the fact that great men are but human. It was a tollet article. There have always been many rivals of this particular article, but, curiously enough, all the Presidents from Lincoln to Roosevelt have had an identical idea concerning the brand of their choice. The Presidents of thirty years ago and their successors used it, as did all persons of refinement in their time. Reference is made to Dr. Lyon's Perfect Tooth Powder. Today, as though the habit were presidentially inherited, one of the familiar blue enamel boxes containing the powder stands beside every toothorush in the bedchamhers of the Roosevelt family. As the package is metal it will not break, and as it has a patent telescopic measuring tube it is ai-ways corked, and is, therefore, a convenience in tollet bags of travelers as well as a luxury in the boudoirs of stay-at-homes. Gen. Grant carried it with him on his tour around the world. From Lincoln to Roosevelt;

Many People in St. Louis Lack Strength Just Now.

Wolff-Wilson Drug Co.'s Valuable Suggestion to Every Weak, Thin or Coughing Person.

This is the season of weakness, because it is the season of ill health. It is the time when people don't have their usual good appetites, don't sleep so well as they should, are nervous, run down and thin, and in many cases, particularly where grip has left its dread traces, there are sore, irritated lungs, a hacking cough, emaciation and general indications of break-down and possibly fatal termination of the trouble.

We want to publish a letter about our delicious Vinol, showing what a true friend it can be to any one suffering from weakness of this kind. This letter was written in New York state, and comes a long way to teach a few (perhaps very many) St. Louis people a useful lesson of health and happiness.

"I had a very bad cough and was all run down. I tried cod liver oil, but it was so nauseating I had to give it up. My mother saw your advertisement of Vinol and she procured a bottle for me. I found it very nice to take and the result was wonderful. My cough was soon

Justice MacLean yesterday dismissed her petition for an order, compelling her form-er counsel, Gen. Kneeland, to turn over to her certain documents which, she alleges, are necessary for a prosecution of her demand for a re-opening of the case. She sayshe will proceed with the case anyway.

At the former hearing Miss McNellis tes-

"I was told," she continued, 'that he was up in the Montana headquarters, went up there and asked some one in the room and he said he did not know, but probably Mr. Ciark, who was in charge could tell me. Mr. Clark came forward and I asked him if he was Mr. Clark.

I asked him if he was Mr. Clark.

"Mr. Claik said he was pleased to meet me, and would like to meet me aga.h, continued the witness. "I said I was pleased to meet him and would cet. Inity like to meet him. He said he proposed to meet me again, and wished to take me to dinner with him."

Miss McNelis said she went to Chicago on a pass which was g yen to her by Senator Brice, who had known her all her life. Mrs. Brice also knew her. She sold books on subscription, and both Mr. and Mrs. Brice were customers of hers.

In response to Mr. Clark's invitat on, she called on him a day or two later and sent up word asking how Mr. Clark was. Word came down in a few minutes that Mr. Clark was very ill, but getting along nicely. Mr. Clark had pneumonia.

GETTING AFTER CUPID.

The Old Maids' Association of Western New York is preparing crown of thorns for Cupid.

The members of this organization do not call themselves or girls" or "maiden ladies," nor do they resort to any m whatsoever. They are "old maids," and proud of it, and they are determined, if their labors can accomplish this result, that the number of old maids in the United States shall increase year by year. They are collecting facts and statistics to prove that matrimony is a bad business. Every case of wifeing, wife-abandonment, separation and divorce of which lowledge can be obtained by any means is to be reported and reorded. These will be compiled for distribution, and every girls ary and Y. W. C. T. U. throughout the country will be supplied with copies. Two members of the Old Maids' Association other member has given from $100 to $1000 for the cause.

This is compaigning in earnest, and at first blush it looks bed Cupid What can his darts avail against a whole phalanx of nen who glory in their defiance of his power, and who are spending thousands of dollars to gain recruits for their cause What will become of this country if they can succeed in convincing the present generation of girls that Cupid is a fraud and matrimony a sort of Terra del Fuego for womankind? What then will become of the agitation against "race suicide"? These reflections are enough to make Cupid feel blue, but he should not despair. There are the widows.

THE MAN WHO COULDN'T.

ting Attorney Stone of Cole County no

When the grandjury began the investigation into the bribery charges Mr. Stone said: "I don't think there is anything to this talk of boodle. It strikes me that it is only suspicion. Of course I expect to do my duty, but so far I have not seen any wonder ful signs, and I don't think there is any chance, as some say, ming a second Joe Folk." iting on this the Post-Dispatch said: "Mr. Stone mus be taken at his own rating. If he doesn't think that he will bene a second Joe Folk, and has no ambition in that direction he will never do the kind of work Mr. Folk has done. Begin ing this investigation with the belief that it will accomplish ng, and that there is nothing to accomplish, failure is writ over the prosecuting attorney's record at the start. His marks show that he is not the man to catch the corruptionists. He evidently sleeps while he works."

It is just the difference between the man who can and the man who can't. Mr. Stone had a poor opinion of his own honors and his want of faith has been windicated. The laurels which might have crowned him adorn another brow. He knew him self. He knew he couldn't, so he gave way for a man who could The Post-Dispatch foreshadowed Stone's failure when he an-sounced it himself in advance, and the governor, in response to a request urged in these columns, directed Attorney-General If Crow could succeed, why couldn't Stone? The answer is Asy-because Stone is Stone. He had a chance to become—not second Joe Polk, but a first Bob Stone. He dedged the opporunity, and now, free from the strenuous cares he was appointed to bear, but which he shifted to other shoulders, he in the apprehension and prosecution of the criminal class has in the apprehension and prosecution of the criminal class has in the apprehension and prosecution of the criminal class has believed.

Secretaries and assistant secretaries of the treasury and omptrollers of the currency qualify for the presidencies of great anks by distinguished service in Washington. Assistant atorneys-general resign to bury themselves in private materia nterests, where they grub for millions.

The public interest suffers for the lack of just this command ing ability. But there seems to be no help for it. While a man's "worth" is reckoned in dollars he cannot be blamed if he desires dollars. A man will never be "worth" anything if he spends his time on the bench at $5000 a year, and who wants to be counted worthless in this sense in these practical days?

Nevertheless there is another standard of worth and worthlessness, and blessed are the public servants who adopt and liv

"I hope God will wither my hand, palsy my tongue and burn out my heart in the flames of hell before I will intentionally dishonor any position to which the people of Missouri assign me," said Senator Stone at the Kamsas City editorial convention. This lurid pledge of the Senator not to be bad again resembles the blood-curdling oath of the St. Louis boodlers. But if Senator Stone would guit denying charges that have never been made and evading the main points of charges that have been made, his public explanations would be more effective. Nobody charged him with lobbying for the pure food law in 1899, which he denies; but he is charged with posing as the representative of a sham public health seciety while acting as the paid lobbyist of the Baking Powder Trust in opposing the bill to repeal the pure food law in 1901, for the corrupt defeat of which Boodle Agent Kelley ald thousands of dollars of trust money-concerning this charge he is silent. Stone's furious tirade is natural, if not pardonable. It is unfortunate for a public man on the occasion of the launch ing of his boom for the presidential nomination to have to explain his connection with boodle alum legislation, and in his explanation to be compelled to avoid the main point.

FROM THE IMPOSSIBLE TO THE UNKNOWN. Following his unfortunate naming of Senator Stone as a pos-sibility for the presidential nomination of the Kansas City platform Democrats, Col. Bryan suggests James Marshall Head. Col. Bryan should supply a microscope with his suggestion. It would enable the public at least to get a partial answer to the nevitable question: Who in thunder is James Marshall Head? Public curiosity may in a measure be allayed by the statement that Head is mayor of Nashville. Tenn., and by his satisfactory andling of the domestic problems of that charming southern town has justified a second election, and commended himself to Col. Bryan as a fit presidential candidate for the old guard of the Kansas City platform.

If Col. Bryan continues to swing between the impossible like Stone and the unknown like Head he may convince the Kansas City platform Democrats that just as there is only on Democratic platform, so there is only one Democratic candidate whose name Col. This honor is they lay onion eggs, and the proof can be produced. "Aunt" Eunice McReynolds, a well-known colored woman, finds the product of her hennery so flavored this season with her onion patch as to be unable to use her hens' eggs at all. These hens had access at all seasons to "Aunt" Eunice's onion tops, and hence the above condition. People who are fond of onion steak need use but one or two of these eggs and the odor is there. It is remarkable, but the McReynolds hennery has doubtless given to the world a valuable scientic discovery.

WORLD'S FAIR FREE INFORMATION SERVICE.

TO HOUSEHOLDERS: TO HOUSEHOLDERS:

The Exposition management is conducting a free information service to provide accommodations for visitors. It appeals to all householders to co-operate.

Flags, plainly indicating their purpose will be distributed for display from house fronts so long as accommodations are not taken. They will be used generally by citizens.

The information service will direct visitors from Union Station and branch offices to places listed where rooms can be secured. Householders are asked to report promptly by phone when their houses are full and when vacancies occur.

Phones: Kinloch A2082. Bell Main 2359.

Hunyadi Janos

WHY? Because it will positively cure it, with more safety than any other remedy known to the medical profession.

Be careful, however, that you get Hunyadl Janos, as some concoctions are put up and represented to be Hunyadi Water which are not only worthless, but are often harmful. Your physician will recommend Hunyadi Janos. Look at the label, it is Blue with Red Center.

DAILY RECORD OF MARKETS POST-DISPATCH der to see the circus parade."

The association had just got down to serious work when the music of the circus bands and the steam callope pervaded the room in the Board of Education building, and instant adjournment was had on the motion made by Rev. J. Percy Stuart, seconded by Dr. Armstrong.

A BAD BREAK IN WHEAT VALUES

The Bears Attack the Market and Force a Sharp

Decline,

Grain.

The bull movement in wheat received a very decided check today. Bearish speculation once more took a hand, and, aided by a let up in the foreign demand and a let down in the manipulated market on the lake, the bears were able to take a full out of the bulls to the extent of 1% break and wanced in the May and lot in the July option. It was patent that America as usual had advanced in the May and lot in the July option. It was patent that America as usual had advanced in the May and lot in the July option. It was patent that America as usual had advanced in the May and lot in the July option. It was patent that America as usual had advanced in the May and lot in the July option. It was patent that America as usual had advanced to rapidly for the European buy-for, the upshoot of yesterday on this side outling him entirely out. The beais took advantage of this, and with scaling operators generally lind up on the soil. If you are a soil of the soil of WHEAT—It looked this morning very much as though a fight was to be made against the advancing tendency of the market. Sellers were more numerous and an aggressiveness was displayed that has not been seen for some time past on that side, but the people who have been running the buil movement at this end were good buyers and fought all efforts to break the masket. The non-encouragement in cables, the fine weather, large receipts and reports that Armour had settled mest of the May deal in Chicago undoubtedly prompted the attempted bear raid on the local market, the leaders in which were Hubbard-Moffitt, whose pit representative went after July hammer and tongs, while Ed Fleeh gave it best support, though Thysen bought quite a line, and Lang also a good buyer. Schreiner gave May support and sold July. May opened 1/2 higher at 12%c. sold at 72%c and later off to 72%c. July opened 1/2c lower at 67%c, sold at 67% of 1/2 down to 67%c.

This is no "wild cat" bookmaking scheme, nor game of chance, but a straight, legitimate business proposition, that by a little investigation any ordinary man or woman can easily understand; therefore, if you have any money that you want to invest in a legitimate way, where it will earn a big increase for you, and earn it HONESTLY, we cordially invite you to call at our office, or write for particulars, and let us show you what we are doing for thousands of others, then when we offer you the same opportunities, and you see that our proposition is PRACTICABLE AND LEGITIMATE, you will have no trouble in deciding on your own judgment.

But we do not want people to write us who "bite" at every "faker's bait," then after they have been "eauch are ready to denounce every legitimate proposition as a "fake," nor people who put their money into fake speculative schemes, just on the strength of large alluring advertisements, made by the promoters for the sole purpose of catching "suckers." The class of people we desire to have write us is the class that is willing to INVESTIGATE a sensible, legitimate business proposition that will bring large returns, and bring them honestly.

We give a responsible, written guarantee against loss to every purchaser. Our proposition is one of the few LEGITIMATE "golden opportunities" that are presented during the natural lifetime of man.

We are making money for thousands of people, and making it honorably, and we have never lost a dollar for any one. But we cannot make money for those who will not INVESTIGATE.

Our prospectus is not misleading, nor complicated, nor evasive, but condensed, simple and easy to understand. It is FREE at our office or by mail postpaid.

HOTELS REFUSE TO CONTRACT FOR THEIR ACCOMMODATION

Manager Louis Nethersole, After Being Unable to Secure Quarters at a Hotel, Has Decided to Utilize the Olympic During the Week.

This is Manager Louis Nethersole's solution of the problem that he encountered when he arrived in St. Louis last Saturday. His star is billed to appear at the Olympic Theater the week of April 27, which, as we all know, is set apart for the Dedication Festivities at the World's Fair. It appears that this fact had been overlooked by the astute manager, and he consequently had not taken into consideration. sequently, had not taken into consideration that there might be a few million or so strangers within the gates of St. Louis

While Mr. Nethersole was seriously considering the above plan for the care and comfort of his company, a fresh difficulty arose for him in the form of vigorous protests from Mr. Pat Short, who pointed out that he did mot propose to allow the Olympic Theater to be turned into a hotel, explaining that his license provided that the place was to be used for entertainment only, and that, furthermore, if people were to sleep on the premises, it would invalidate his fire insurance.

Mr. Nethersole occupied several hours in arguing with Mr. Short, and finally the latter gentleman consented to run the necessary risks and allowed Mr. Nethersole to continue his preparations for the housing of the homeless wanderers.

No sooner had Mr. Short overcome his first scruples than he entered heart ind soul finto the preparations. He personally introduced Mr. Nethersole to a well-known firm of St. Louis house-furnishers who contracted to supply a large number of cots and other bedroom paraphernalia to the Olympic Theater, to be placed there early on Sunday morning, and Mr. Nethersole and Mr. Short by that time will have settled the locations of the various bedrooms and everything will be in perfect order for the comfort of the travelers when they arrive in St. Leuis from Louisville next Sunlay afternoon.

Stranger's Queer Amusement.

Ringing of the schoolhouse bell aroused the entire neighborhood in the vicinity of the Ritenour School building in St. Louis County Sunday night. O. P. Baldwin, who was the first to arrive at the school building, saw what at first looked like an apparition. A tall, gaunt man, 45 years old, with long beard and burning eyes, was standing in the center of the schoolhouse tugging at the bell rope. After a score or more of persons had assembled, the intruder was put out of the building and given orders to move on. He obeyed. No one knew him.

Miss Millie James, in "The Little Princess," a comedy drama by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, will be at the Olympic next month. This fascinating play has been one of the greatest successes known in New York in years. It comes to St. Louis with the original company and production, under the management of Charles B. Dillingham. Miss James has scored a striking success in the role of the 12-year-old girl—an achievement which is all the more wonderful when it is known that Miss James is in reality a beautiful young woman 23 years old.

as a sample, one may easily figure out that this is Charles Frohman's recipe for making a star: play, surround him with the very best company in the market and print his name in big type at the head of the pro-

To be sure, this recipe doesn't always work entirely to the satisfaction of the public or Mr. Frohman either, but in the case of Mr. Faversham it does. No one who saw him in "Imprudence" at the Olympic Theater will deny that he is entitled to be classed among the stellar attractions. Nor will anyone deny that the play and the company have about as much to do with the success of Mr. Faversham as has Mr. Faversham timself.

"Imprudence," which was written by Henry V. Faversham Esmond, is an entertaining comedy, with a lot of good situations and a fair number of bright lines. Barring the fact that it is a bit talky at the beginningwhile the old women are gossiping and while the old women are gossiping and getting things ready for the play to begin—it is about as well done as anything that has come to us this season.

But of course a play must have talk enough to lay out the story, more's the pity. If the beginning and ending of a play could be eliminated, what a choice morsel we should have. It would be like enjoying the custard in the pie without having to eat the crust. But plays, like having to eat the crust. But plays, like ples, must be taken as they come, and "Imprudence" has really about as little 'crust' as any we have had.

One can't expect a play to be made up entirely of epiframs, though "Imprudence" has a fair number, as instance the following: Jack Frere—Mr. Faversham—is speaking to Sir Harry about his intended: Jack: I suppose it is because it is

Ous. Nothing like it since the world began.

Or again when Mrs. Greaves is trying to find out something about her husband, she appears to Jack and Sir Harry to help her and gets no assistance from either. To stir Harry, she says: "You were a barrister, were you not, before your aunts money made a man of you?" and to Jack: "You're in love, Jack. Your brain is not working."

Finany, in a scene between Jack and his sweetheart, we get this:

Jack: How many people have fallen in love with you?

Billy: O, heaps and heaps. There was Miss.
